

SOUTH SCHOOLS MINI-NETWORK

WE ARE CHIGNIK BAY, PILOT POINT AND PERRYVILLE SCHOOLS, IN THE LAKE AND PENINSULA SCHOOL DISTRICT

Our mission, within AEIN, is to build a network between three small, remote rural schools on the Alaska Peninsula. The network collaborates to select a book to study for professional development each semester, and discusses the book via internet blog.

Teachers in the network collaborate, communicate, and build professional relationships to support one another and overcome small school isolation

A study group using technology to bridge the gap between rural schools and build a collaborative professional learning community.

What are you learning and how do you know?

- ✓ Collaboration can be achieved despite isolation and distance using technology
- ✓ Building networks strengthens small rural schools
- ✓ Choice encourages ownership

What further questions does your work pose? What are you excited to pursue more deeply?

- How to continue and grow collaborative support and networking between other LPSD schools
- We are excited to expand the network further across our district
