Chugiak-Eagle River Campus
University of Alaska Anchorage

Community Drivers

- Has served Chugiak-Eagle River community for more than 30 years
- Serves nontraditional students (returning adults, older working students with families, active military and returning vets)
- Offers evening and weekend courses
- Employs 100 college instructors

Opportunities at UAA

- Houses Alaska’s first Middle College School
- Expands dual enrollment model
- Offers flexible access to postsecondary education for nontraditional students
- Increases weekend course offerings
- Serves as a public square for community partner events
- Collaborates with main campus academic departments to provide student opportunities in Eagle River

Challenges for UAA

- Increasing student demand and campus growth is outpacing current facility
- Inadequate facilities to accommodate requirements of Associate of Arts degree with natural science emphasis
- Greater awareness of opportunities at Chugiak-Eagle River Campus would foster growth
