Kim,

I officially take on my new role as Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs on March 1. One of my immediate goals is to develop and implement a strategic plan to make student services more student-centered. Part of that strategy includes developing stronger collaborations with academic and administrative departments to enhance the overall campus and MAU efforts toward recruitment, retention, and goal completion/graduation.

I would like to meet with the Classified Council for about an hour within the next few weeks to gain your members' perspectives of challenges and opportunities in the new division of Student Affairs. I am looking for your recommendations for areas of improvement, collaboration and growth.

Here is an overview of most of the areas under Student Affairs:
