

Seamus E. Mawe

Seamus E. Mawe was born January 14, 1952 and was raised in Pennsylvania.

Seamus Mawe was a clinical nursing student at the University of Alaska Anchorage. He was in the baccalaureate nursing program when he died in a car accident.

His dream was to provide nursing services to residents of rural communities or underdeveloped countries.

Mr. Mawe is survived by his mother, Louise M. Mawe, his brothers, David, Gary, and Kevin Mawe, and his sisters, Margaret Mawe and Marie E. Charpentier.