

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA ANCHORAGE

Kibrik & Bergelson

Russian Student Scholarship

The purpose of the Kibrik & Bergelson Scholarship is to offer financial assistance for tuition and other educational expenses to students from Russia.

Web site: http://www.uaa.alaska.edu/scholarships/kibrik\_student.cfm

Who is Eligible: Incoming or continuing students from Russia

Application Process: Regular UAOnline application with a focused essay

Deadline: February 15

Contact Information: Dr. Susan Kalina • (907) 786-4031 • afsmk@uaa.alaska.edu

Qualifications:

- Applicant must be from Russia.
- Applicant must demonstrate high academic potential through a well-written application essay and their grade point average.
- Applicants must be in good academic standing with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0. Preference will be given to applicants with higher grade point averages.
- Applicant must be formally admitted into an undergraduate, graduate, certificate and/or vocational degree-seeking program at the University of Alaska Anchorage.
- Applicant must plan on enrolling full-time (twelve (12) credits for undergraduate and nine (9) credits for graduate) at the University of Alaska Anchorage.
- Applicant may be an incoming or continuing student at the University of Alaska Anchorage.
- Preference will be given to applicants formally admitted into a language, communications and/or anthropology degree-seeking program. Applicants not in these degree-seeking programs should discuss any related work, for example, relevant courses taken in these three areas, relevant student clubs and/or activities (e.g. debate, student newspaper, language clubs and conversation tables, anthropology club), work as a language tutor, foreign language study at UAA, etc. in the scholarship application essay.

To apply for this scholarship, please log in to UAOnline from the UAA Web site and complete the electronic scholarship application.

