Student Support Services

A Trio program sponsored by UAA

Supplementing Student Success!

Student Support Services is a fully-funded Trio program of the U.S. Department of Education in the amount of $235,486.00 annually. Sec. 402D HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965 SEC. 402D. 20 U.S.C. 1070a-14.

What is Student Support Services?

Student Support Services (SSS) is an academic support program that offers a multiplicity of support services to students with limited income, whose parent(s) have not earned a baccalaureate degree, and/or who experience a documented disability. As a department within Academic and Multicultural Student Services, the goal of SSS is to enable students, with academic need, to persist and to graduate from the University of Alaska Anchorage.

How Can SSS Help?

After acceptance into the Student Support Services Program, students will have a variety of services available to them:

- Assistance with educational planning
- Access to computer technology
- Access to our Resource Library
- Workshops and lectures to enhance personal development and academic progress
- Assistance with career exploration
- Graduate school enrollment advice
- Assistance locating sources of financial aid
- Tutorial assistance
- And more...

How Can I Apply?

To apply for acceptance, simply complete a paper application or download one from our website at <http://uaa.alaska.edu/sss>. You can mail, fax, or hand deliver your completed application to the Student Support Services office located in the UAA Diplomacy Building, Suite 105. Upon receipt of your application, one of our staff will contact you to determine how SSS can best help you reach your academic goals.
