9:35-10:15 How you contributed to meeting UAA 2027 - Gathering your examples
Rhiannon Calkins, Executive Assistant to the Vice Chancellor, Administrative Services; UAA 2030 Tri-Chair

Breakout groups and capturing the input (20 minutes) - Groups will have 20 minutes to discuss the questions below. Each group should select someone to serve in the following roles: 1) A facilitator to help make sure everyone has an opportunity to participate; 2) A timekeeper to ensure the group has time to discuss all three questions; 3) A notetaker to record the highlights of your responses on the Table Discussion Sheet and turn it in; and 4) A reporter to briefly summarize their discussion during the reports out, as time allows.

1. How did UAA 2027 help set your priorities?
2. What related achievements are you most proud of?
3. What single word would the group use to describe UAA 2027 and UAA's accomplishments relative to the plan?

Reports out (20 minutes)

10:15-10:25 Moving forward from UAA 2027 - Setting up the next conversation
Denise Runge, Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

10:25-10:45 Brainstorm - What would be helpful in a plan to further move the aspirations forward?
Matthew Cuellar, Associate Professor, Social Work; UAA 2030 Tri-Chair

10:45-10:55 What we heard
Rhiannon Calkins, Executive Assistant to the Vice Chancellor, Administrative Services; UAA 2030 Tri-Chair
