

ONLINE TITLE IX TRAINING FAQ

The University of Alaska is committed to fostering a safe and healthy educational and work environment. One of the ways we can accomplish this goal is by ensuring all students and employees take the annual Title IX training. The training is meant to be an initial introduction to rights and resources for students, faculty and staff.

STUDENT TRAINING

DEADLINE:

October 31st

HOLDS PLACED:

Nov. 5th

WHO IS REQUIRED:

All degree seeking students, students living on campus, international students and students studying abroad

TRAINING ACCESS:

Students can access the training through Blackboard, under the "My Courses" tab.

TECHNICAL ISSUES:

All technical issues should be directed to IT by calling 907-786-4646

REGISTERING FOR CLASSES:

Blackboard will automatically update Banner approximately every 24 hours

EMPLOYEE TRAINING

DEADLINE:

October 1st

WHO IS REQUIRED:

All university employees, including contracted employees

TRAINING ACCESS:

Employees can access the training through the MyUA Learning Library. The training is labeled "Title IX - FY20"

TECHNICAL ISSUES:

Technical support can be found at www.alaska.edu/hrtraining or by calling HRIS at 907-450-8214

TRAINING COMPLETION:

Employees will need to click the black "X" in the upper right hand corner of the screen when they exit the training. After completing the training, employees Banner accounts will be updated approximately every 24 hours

STUDENT AND EMPLOYEE OPT OUT FORM:
HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/YXVYAJBH