Title IX: The Law

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance..."

Title IX Commitment to Students

1. Provide a safe learning environment to all.
2. Inform students, faculty and staff of their Title IX rights and responsibilities.
3. Respond to all inquiries from students, faculty and staff regarding Title IX rights and responsibilities.
4. Provide mandatory Title IX training for all employees.
5. Respond promptly and effectively to any report of sex-based harassment.
6. Stop the harassment, help the victim, investigate the incident, and prevent reoccurrence.
7. Provide victims with disclosure options and assist with contacting resources based on the victim’s wishes.
8. Ensure that any investigation of sex-based harassment and violence is thorough, and impartial under Title IX guidance.
9. Track all complaints reported to the Title IX office.
10. Stay current with state and federal laws, regulations and trends related to Title IX sex-based harassment and other forms of discrimination that violate our policies.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. § 1681) is an all-encompassing federal law that prohibits discrimination based on the gender of students and employees of educational institutions, which receive federal financial assistance.
