XVI. President’s Report

Governance staffing: Coordinator search is near completion. Hillary Comeaux is no longer with UAA. The search for that position is being deferred until the coordinator position is filled.

Wellness Program: The $100 rebate in health payroll deductions for participation in the Wellness survey is scheduled to be deposited before the end of December. Employees who pay less than $100 in health payroll deductions per paycheck will have their rebate spread out over several paychecks.

Staff Tuition Waiver: Statewide is evaluating the staff tuition waiver benefit to ensure the program is administered properly. There are concerns about employees who regularly register and drop courses without completing them. Statewide does not intend to eliminate the benefit.

XVII. Administrative Reports
A. Chancellor Maimon

B. Interim Provost Gehler

C. Vice Chancellor of Administrative Services Ejigu
   Athletics: Men’s and women’s cross country teams have qualified for NCAA championship games.

   Operational Review: President Hamilton and his executive staff met with the Chancellor and her cabinet to review UAA’s status and progress on performance metrics. Many metrics, including enrollment, retention, and university generated revenue, have been met or exceeded.

   FY07 Budget: The BOR approved Operating Budget request includes $47 million (M) increase over existing base. The bulk is dedicated to contractually obligated salaries and benefits. $10 M is available for program enhancement. The $230 M Capital Budget request includes $55 M for the remainder of the Integrated Science Building project, and $98 for significant repair and upkeep of facilities. $2.4 M is set aside for roof repair, which will cover 3 major buildings. The first priority is the old library structure.

D. Vice Chancellor of Advancement Lindbeck

E. Vice Chancellor for Student Services Lazzell (written report p. 6-7)
   Spring Registration: 11/7 was the first day of spring registration. 5,000 students registered that day, which is about a third of the total UAA students. A number of GER sections filled and closed that first day. Enrollment Services is doing everything it can to make the registration process run smoothly.

F. Vice Chancellor for Community Partnerships Carter-Chapman

XVIII. Governance Reports
   A. System Governance Council
   B. Faculty Alliance/Faculty Senate
      Academic Plan: Faculty Senate is conducting small discussion groups this month for their members to review the academic plan.

      Faculty Senate conducted a successful distance education roundtable in November. An all-faculty assembly on distance education will be held on February 10th.

      Student evaluation instrument: Faculty Senate is working on changing the student evaluation instrument. A timetable and process for replacement of the current system are being discussed. The pilot is planned to continue this fall, with hopes to replace the old system in Spring 2006.

      Faculty Senate is moving forward on faculty evaluation of administrators. Most details still need to be worked out.

   C. Staff Alliance/APT Council/Classified Council (written report p. 8-9)
   D. Student Network/Student Government
Elections for Student Assembly are scheduled for the week of November 14th. Student assembly is struggling to remain full.

USUAA is planning a legislative luncheon on November 15th. So far, three legislators have been confirmed. If ten cannot be confirmed, they may postpone the date.

Budget Update

Gebe reported on recent budget actions. CAS, COE, and SOE are all projecting serious deficits for this fiscal year. Hiring freezes, postponed searches, and critical analysis of expenses are all being used to address this issue. In addition, President Hamilton has been briefed on some possible root causes for these deficits. Large expansion in programs such as nursing and engineering greatly increased the demand for GERs, without increasing the funds CAS receives to provide these courses.

PBAC reallocated money from other units to cover part of the deficits from FY05 for the affected units, but the remainder was carried forward. In past years, units have not had to carry forward negative balances, but this has changed to encourage better budget management.

As part of the discussion, Gebe mentioned a recent article in the Chronicle on Higher Education on higher education funding. (See chart below.)

Facilities Update - Cyndi Spear

Interviews are in progress to select a design team for the Integrated Science Building.

The Capital Budget request includes a normal safety and code package; a package for work on existing facilities (including the Cuddy Center, CAS, the dental lab, a community campus science lab renewal, and improvements to the ERA facility, which is not currently up to code); and a new facilities package, which will include the Integrated Science Facility and two community campus projects. The next step is to see which pieces in the capital budget make the governor’s budget request to the legislature.

UAA is participating in a Tudor corridor traffic calming project and discussions about a Bragaw extension. The Bragaw extension is limited by building restrictions on the wetlands that surround the U-Med district.
Advocacy Update- Pete Kelly
Pete passed out information on UA’s budget request. He encourages contacting the governor and legislators about our needs. The governor is still preparing his request for the legislature, so contacting him is a priority now. Budget items that are not in the governor’s request are usually not approved by the legislature. After the governor’s request, advocacy should shift its focus to the legislature. Keep in mind that the state has more revenue due to higher oil prices, but this is an election year, so the appearance of fiscal discipline will be important to legislators.

Anyone with comments or suggestions is invited to contact Pete at petekelly@alaska.edu.

Academic and Strategic Planning- Will Jacobs
UAA is beginning work on a 2006-2011 strategic plan. The goal is for the process to be participatory and consultative, incorporating views and suggestions from internal and external stakeholders. The finished plan should provide a coherent framework into which all the other plans (academic plan, enrollment management plan, facilities master plan) can fit.

Internal focus groups will begin soon, and the document is scheduled to be complete and ready for public comment and community discussion in late March or early April. The plan should be through the review process and ready for adoption and implementation on May 1, 2006.

Assembly will hold a special focused session in January to contribute discussion on “vision” for the strategic plan. The meeting date is TBD.
