Instructions for joining the UAA College of Engineering's 2020 Spring Celebration of Graduates

If you plan to attend the Celebration as a guest, please use the YouTube Livestream link below:
https://youtu.be/n\_SPoN8yi6E

If you plan to attend the Celebration as a new graduate, faculty member, or staff member, please use the Zoom link at the end of this page after reading the following instructions.

This College of Engineering 2020 Spring Celebration of Graduates Zoom meeting will be broadcast live and recorded. By joining through Zoom, you agree that your contributions in the meeting can be made public.

Please be aware of and control your microphone and camera, presenting yourself in Zoom appropriately and being mindful of your camera lighting and background. If we presume good video from your camera is possible in your case, we would prefer you to have your camera on to better interact with you and gauge your responses during the Celebration event. We ask that you keep your microphone muted (to prevent background noise) unless you are addressing all event attendees or taking an oath. The standard UAA Code of Conduct applies, and the meeting will be moderated.

In Zoom (bottom left corner of the application):

Microphone Muted (pressing will "Unmute")
