

Communication: Between the Lines

Community Reentry Partnerships

Background: A Tale of Two Experiences

Key Differences

NEGATIVE RESULTS

Infrequent communication

Too many urgent requests

“Name on a screen” effect

POSITIVE RESULTS

Tailored, brief, frequent updates

Prioritize requests based off of the behavior of the participant

In person visits and scheduled meetings

A Short Community Reentry Recap

Community	Grantee	Coalition Oversight	Case Management Oversight
Existing coalitions – July 2015
Anchorage Fairbanks Mat-Su Juneau	NeighborWorks Center for Nonviolent Living Valley Charities Nat'l Council on Alcoholism on Drug Abuse	The Trust's Coalition Capacity Development Grants	DBH's Recidivism Reduction Grants
Emerging coalitions – January 2017
Kenai	Bridges Community Resources Network	DBH's Recidivism Reduction Grants	DBH's Recidivism Reduction Grants
Expanding coalitions – January 2017
Nome	Norton Sound Health Corporation	DBH's Recidivism Reduction Grants	DBH's Recidivism Reduction Grants

Key Implementation Partners

Division of Behavioral Health

Department
of Corrections

The Alaska
Mental Health
Trust Authority

Key Implementation Partners

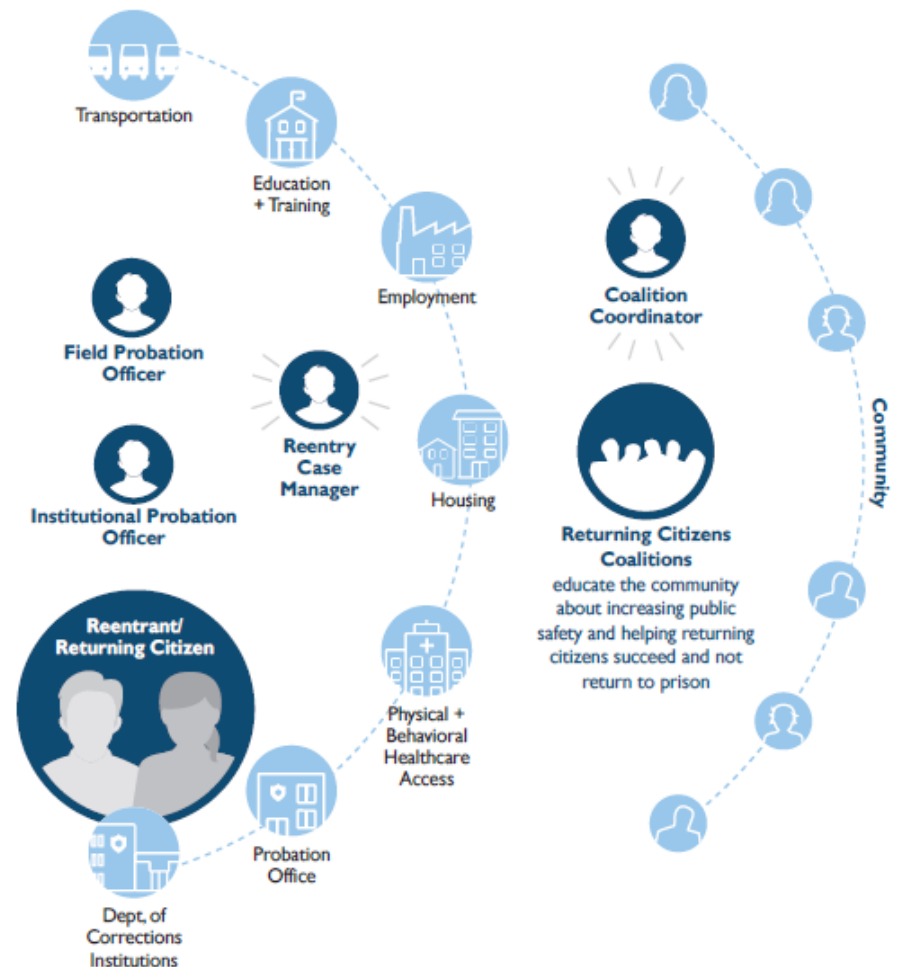

The Challenge

Next Steps

- Technical Assistance Training
March 9th and 10th
- Continued Training for Case Managers
- Increased coordination and communication with community and state stakeholders

Contact Information

Division of Behavioral
Health

Alysa Wooden

Program Coordinator,
Community Reentry

alysa.wooden@alaska.gov

(907) 264-0641

Department
of Corrections

Morgen Jaco

Reentry
Program Manager

morgen.jaco@alaska.gov

(907) 269-5627

The Alaska
Mental Health
Trust Authority

Steve Williams

Chief Operating Officer

steve.williams@alaska.gov

(907) 269-7697