

Where can a degree in Justice lead you?

Law Enforcement/Policing

- Police Officer
- State Trooper
- Sheriff's Deputy
- U.S. Marshals Service
- Village Public Safety Officer (VPSO)
- ATF Agent
- Alaska Wildlife Trooper
- Fish & Wildlife Agent
- Park Ranger
- Immigration & Customs Agent
- Border Patrol Agent
- FBI Agent
- DEA Agent

- Crime Scene Investigator
- Juvenile Justice Specialist
- Crime Analyst

- Military Police
- Military Criminal Investigations Officer
- Military Judge Advocate Specialist
- Crisis Negotiator
- Emergency Services Dispatcher
- Drug Education Specialist
- Crime Prevention Specialist
- Batterer Intervention Specialist
- Domestic Violence Prevention Specialist

In the Courts

- Attorney
- Judge
- Magistrate
- Bailiff
- Court Security Officer
- Court Administrator

Corrections

- Corrections Officer
- Prisoner Re-entry Coordinator
- Work Detail Supervisor
- Corrections Administrator
- Probation/Parole Officer

Private Sector/Business Sector

- Paralegal
- Private Prison Administration
- Private Prison Corrections Officer
- Private Security
- Risk Management/Loss Prevention
- Corporate Security
- Private Investigator

Research/Education/Advocacy

- University/Private Foundation Researcher
- Criminal Justice Educator
- Criminologist
- Victims Advocate
- Violence Against Women Advocate

What degrees and certificates are offered at the Justice Center?

- Bachelor of Arts or Minor Degree in Justice
- Bachelor of Arts or Minor Degree in Legal Studies
- Associate of Applied Science in Paralegal Studies
- Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Paralegal Studies
- Legal Nurse Consultant Paralegal Certificate

What resources are available at the Justice Center?

- Great professors and courses, including the following:
 - Factual Investigation
 - Crime Prevention
 - Crime & Delinquency
 - Litigation
 - Development of Law
 - Parole & Probation
 - Policing Issues
 - Constitutional Laws
 - Therapeutic Courts
 - Alcohol & Crime
 - Data Analysis
 - and more!
- Academic and pre-Law advising
- Dedicated computer lab for justice and legal studies students
- Society of Law and Justice club – open to all students
- Alpha Phi Sigma – The National Criminal Justice Honor Society
- Career resources
- Community engagement
- Opportunity to work with faculty on important and interesting research projects

For more detailed information contact the UAA Justice Center
Phone: (907) 786-1810 Website: <http://uaa.alaska.edu/justice>

(Rev. 5/28/19)

Justice Center ♦ University of Alaska Anchorage ♦ 3211 Providence Drive ♦ Anchorage, AK 99508
(907) 786-1810 ♦ uaa.justice@alaska.edu ♦ <http://uaa.alaska.edu/justice>

