

Career Options

Bachelor of Arts in Legal Studies

Minor in Legal Studies

Associate of Applied Science in Paralegal Studies

Post-Baccalaureate in Paralegal Studies

Where can a degree in Legal Studies lead you?

In the Legal Field

- Paralegal or Legal Assistant
- Legal Investigator
- Legal Researcher
- Legal Analyst
- Law Office Librarian
- Legal Database Administrator
- Consultant/Developer of Trial Exhibits
- Mediator/Arbitrator
- Victim or Witness Advocate
- Guardian Ad Litem
- Attorney
- Judge

Focus Areas of Law

- Family Law
- Trusts, Wills and Probate
- Personal Injury
- Insurance Defense
- Immigration
- Litigation
- Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights
- Personal & Corporate Taxation
- Real Estate
- Business/Corporations
- Entertainment/Copyright
- Employment, Labor & Benefits
- Health Care
- Intellectual Property
- Media and First Amendment

In the Courts

- Magistrate
- Bailiff
- Court Administrator
- Court Clerk
- Judicial Assistant
- Court Interpreter

In Government

- Regulatory Specialist
- Legislative Aid/Analyst
- Government Legal Technician

Other Fields

- Insurance Analyst/Adjuster/Investigator
- Risk Management Officer
- Title Officer/Researcher/Examiner
- Mortgage Specialist
- Trust Officer
- Compliance Officer
- Tax Preparer
- Securities Analyst
- Technical Writer
- Legal Software Consultant

What degrees and certificates are offered at the Justice Center?

- Bachelor of Arts Degree in Legal Studies
- Minor in Legal Studies
- Associate of Applied Science in Paralegal Studies
- Post-Baccalaureate in Paralegal Studies
- Bachelor of Arts Degree in Justice
- Minor in Justice

What resources are available at the Justice Center?

- Great professors and courses, including the following:
 - Legal Ethics
 - Family Law
 - Criminal Law
 - Contracts, Debt, Principles of Ownership
 - Civil Procedure & Pretrial Practice
 - Evidence, Investigation, Discovery
 - Torts, Workers' Comp., Insurance Law
 - Civil Liberties
 - Jurisprudence & Legal Theory
 - Tribal Courts & AK Native Rights
 - Trial & Advanced Litigation
- Academic and pre-Law advising
- Dedicated computer lab for justice and legal studies students
- Society of Law and Justice club – open to all students
- Alpha Phi Sigma – The National Criminal Justice Honor Society
- Career resources
- Community engagement
- Opportunity to work with faculty on important and interesting research projects

For more detailed information contact the UAA Justice Center
Phone: (907) 786-1810 Website: www.justice.uaa.alaska.edu