WE ARE HIRING!

Cook Inlet Tribal Council's Recovery Services Department is recruiting for individuals with a passion for helping their community.

Open Positions Include:

- Co-Occurring Mental Health Clinician
- Substance Use Counselor
- Case Manager
- Program Supervisor
- Program Support Specialist

Benefits Include:

Paid holidays, paid time off, excellent health insurance options that fit the families financial and medical needs, educational support, and loan repayment options.

Apply Online Today at www.citci.org/citc-careers/

About Cook Inlet Tribal Council

Through our recovery services department, CITC aims to use our deeply rooted cultural values to provide spiritual wellness to the Alaskan Native community. As stated in our ThriveAbility plan, we believe that "Spiritual Wellness can be interpreted as our natural desire to connect our hearts to one another, to love, to heal, and to grow together. It channels who we are as a People – stronger together, nourished by the deep connections we share in relationship with one another."

Hiring Preference: Preference for employment shall be given to eligible and qualified Alaska Native and American Indian applicants pursuant to P.L. 93-638 Indian Self Determination Act.

COOK INLET TRIBAL COUNCIL

People. Partnership. Potential.