- Budget Metrics
 - Each college needs to select which metrics they are going to use. Please decide which process you are going to use to decide this based on.
- Course Cancellation Policy
 - We need to come to an agreement or charge the AD's with coming to an agreement on course cancellations
- Review of COVID protocols
 - Clear masks are on the way – please share with your Faculty.
 - Welcome Desks for the start of the Fall semester
 - Wolfcard information
 - Landyards & card holders will be handed out
 - Buildings will be locked
 - Wolfcards & vaccinations will be offered at Campus Kickoff
 - Script for Faculty to engage with a student who is not wearing a mask, de-escalation protocols
 - If you need more technology budget we do have some COVID funding, route those requests through Provost Runge if it's instructional technology and Tim Edwards if it's barrier type things
 - Spring – F2F vs. online? Offer at least 1/3 of courses F2F – hybrid is considered F2F
 - Building managers were all sent signage to post in their areas
 - Work with Department Chairs on finding substitutes for courses in case they need to quarantine
 - Payment?
 - Generally speaking Faculty had stated a willingness to stand in for one another without compensation – adjuncts can be paid by the hour
 - If someone is exposed to COVID, they are required to self-disclose to Risk Management which leads to contact tracing. Environmental Health and Safety at 907-786-1300 or via uaa_ehsrms@alaska.edu

- Course Fee College-Level Budget Approvers
- New FAQ on the Academic Continuity Site

- o What if a Faculty member has in person, but would like to offer hybrid to students? There is a new FAW about this. Yes, Faculty can allow students to do this. They need to track this and line out very clearly in the syllabus what the expectation for attendance is.

- Student Success Advisory Council Goals and Needs
 - o Textbook affordability is going to be the main focus this year
 - o A project we want to focus on is a 0-cost textbook pathway for the AA program – they will work to identify which programs/courses will need to have a 0-cost textbook
 - o UaOnline doesn't show which courses don't have a way to let students know that the course has a 0 or low-cost textbook – “course marking”
