

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR THE ELIMINATION OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

NOVEMBER
25

Women's rights activists have observed 25 November as a day against gender-based violence since 1981.

On 7 February 2000, the United Nations General Assembly adopts resolution 54/134, officially designating 25 November as the International day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women and in doing so, inviting governments, international organizations as well as NGOs to join together and organize activities designed to raise public awareness of the issue every year on that date.

Wear orange on November 25th to show your support in irradicating violence against women, world wide!

If you would like to request orange ribbons for your department or class, please contact Bridget Coffou: bmcoffou@alaska.edu
