PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Union of Students of the University of Alaska Anchorage, in order to represent student interests, needs, and welfare within the university community; to supplement and complement education on the University of Alaska Anchorage campus; to provide for the expression of student opinion and interests to the community at large; to protect the rights of the students herein stated; and to promote an understanding of the concept of self-governance, do affirm and establish this Constitution of the Union of Students of the University of Alaska Anchorage.

ARTICLE ONE

Establishment

SECTION ONE

Name

This organization will be known as the Union of Students of the University of Alaska Anchorage, hereinafter referred to as USUAA, and will be recognized by the Board of Regents as the sole official representative of the students of the University of Alaska Anchorage for purposes set forth in this constitution.

SECTION TWO

Purpose

The purpose of USUAA will be to:

- Clause One: Broaden the educational perspective of the students by instituting a structure of self-governance.
- Clause Two: Promote the educational needs, general welfare and rights of the students.
- Clause Three: Serve as a forum for students to express their ideas for enhancing the quality of their educational experience through expanded and improved communications among students, faculty, administration and beyond.
- Clause Four: Formulate policy and procedures concerning student life.
- Clause Five: Serve all students equally, in accordance with Board of Regents Policy, federal and state law, prohibiting discrimination against individuals, including but not limited, on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, physical or mental disability, change in marital status, pregnancy or parenthood.

ARTICLE TWO

Governance

SECTION ONE

Membership

All full-time and part-time University of Alaska Anchorage students who pay the prescribed Student Government fee will be members of USUAA with all rights, privileges, and responsibilities in any activity to which the authority of this constitution extends.

SECTION TWO

Student Government Fee

- Clause One: USUAA has the authority to establish and allocate a student government fee in accordance with Regent's policy.
- Clause Two: This fee or any designated portion thereof will not be changed except by successful passage of a student referendum or initiative pursuant to Article Ten of this Constitution.

ARTICLE THREE

USUAA Assembly

SECTION ONE

Legislative Branch

- Clause One: The voting members of USUAA, hereinafter referred to as the Assembly, will have vested in it all legislative powers of USUAA subject to all the provisions hereinafter enumerated. Each member of the Assembly will have one (1) vote.
- Clause Two: The Assembly will consist of a single chamber made up of ten (10) Senators, elected at-large from the membership of USUAA, up to two (2) Delegates elected from the membership of USUAA from each of the UAA Colleges and the Graduate School, and up to one (1) Liason appointed from the membership of USUAA by each: Club Council, Residence Hall Association, and Greek Life.
- Clause Three: At the first meeting of the fall semester, the Assembly will elect from among themselves, by a two thirds (2/3) vote, the following positions: Speaker of the Assembly, Speaker Pro Tempore, Government Relations Officer, and Chief Financial Officer. These members will serve for the academic year and shall maintain their ability to vote on Assembly business.

Clause Four: Standing Committees of the Assembly will consist of Rules, Legislative Affairs, Student and Academic Affairs, Activities, and Finance.

SECTION TWO

Meetings of the Assembly

Clause One: Meetings will be held at a regularly announced time and place each week that the University is in session, excluding summer session which will be governed by special rules defined in the Bylaws.

Clause Two: A quorum of three-fifths (3/5) of the voting members of the Assembly is required to conduct all business. Once a quorum has been established, business may continue. However, the Speaker of the Assembly must adjourn the meeting if attendance falls below a simple majority.

Clause Three: Special meetings may be called by the Speaker of the Assembly or by the petition of a majority of the Assembly.

Clause Four: In the event that the Speaker is unavailable to chair a regularly scheduled Assembly meeting, the Speaker Pro Tempore shall chair the meeting. In the event that the Speaker and the Pro Tempore are unavailable to chair a regularly scheduled Assembly meeting, and the number of voting members meets or exceeds quorum, then the members of the Assembly will elect from among themselves a temporary chair. Said temporary Chair will serve only for that particular meeting and will have all the responsibilities and restrictions accorded to that position for the duration of that meeting.

Clause Five: Meetings will comply with the open meetings law and Board of Regents policy.

SECTION THREE

Duties of the Assembly

Clause One: The Assembly will initiate and act upon legislation on behalf of the membership of USUAA.

Clause Two: The Assembly will be responsible for the planning and implementation of student forums as necessary to support the mission of USUAA.

- Clause Three: Each Senator of the Assembly must serve on two (2) standing committees as appointed by the Rules Committee, with the exception of the Speaker, Government Relations Officer, and Chief Financial Officer.
- Clause Four: Each Delegate to the Assembly will serve on a minimum of one (1) Standing Committees as appointed by the Rules Committee, and may serve on an additional one (1) committee of his or her choosing with the approval of the Rules Committee.
- Clause Five: Each Liason may serve on one (1) committee of his or her choosing with the approval of the Rules Committee.
- Clause Six: A Senator or Delegate can request to serve on Media Board, Concert Board, Travel Board, or Green Fee Board in lieu of serving on one (1) committee with the approval of the Rules Committee. The Speaker, Government Relations Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Liasons are not eligible for this exemption; a Senator may only use this exemption for one (1) of his or her two (2) committee obligations, but may request to serve on more than one (1) Board.
- Clause Seven: Each Senator of the Assembly is required to serve at least two hours of office time in the USUAA office or conducting USUAA business on campus each week that classes are in session.

ARTICLE FOUR

Executive Branch

SECTION ONE

Executives

- Clause One: There will be a President and Vice-President, elected at large by the membership of USUAA in the spring semester to serve the next academic year.
- Clause Two: The following Assembly positions will serve on the executive committee: The Speaker, the Speaker Pro Tempore, Government Relations Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Sergeant-At-Arms.
- Clause Three: The Speaker Pro Tempore will be the Chair of the Student and Academic Affairs Committee.
- Clause Four: The Government Relations Officer will be the Chair of the Legislative Affairs Committee.

- Clause Five: The Chief Financial Officer will be the Chair of the Finance Committee.
- Clause Six: The Chair of Rules Committee will be the Sergeant-At-Arms; unless said Chair holds another executive position in which case the Sergeant-At-Arms will be appointed by the Vice President from among the Assembly with concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the Assembly.
- Clause Seven: Except as outlined above, executives will not serve as chair to any standing committee or boards.
- Clause Eight: There will be an Ombudsman, appointed by the President from the non-governing membership of USUAA with concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the Assembly.

SECTION TWO

Duties of the President

The President of USUAA:

- Clause One: Will act as the official spokesperson and have signature authority for USUAA.
- Clause Two: May veto Assembly legislation, in writing, within six (6) days (144 hours) after receiving an engrossed and enrolled copy certified by the Speaker of the Assembly. On the seventh (7th) day, if not signed, the legislation will go into effect. The Assembly may override the veto by two-thirds (2/3) vote of its membership by the second (2nd) meeting of the Assembly following a veto message from the President.
- Clause Three: Will appoint student representatives to serve on boards and ad-hoc committees, fill vacancies via appointment as necessary, and will have the authority to rescind all such appointments subject to concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the Assembly.
- Clause Four: Will work in conjunction with the Assistant Director of Student Leadership to hire and supervise all paid staff.
- Clause Five: Will work with and train the President-elect for the time between certification of the election and installation of new President to ensure continuity of the office.

SECTION THREE

Duties of the Vice President

The Vice President of USUAA will:

Clause One: Attend all meetings of the Assembly, and may only vote in the case of a tie.

Clause Two: Be an ex-officio member of all committees of the Assembly.

Clause Three: Appoint a Sergeant-At-Arms when necessary.

Clause Four: Be responsible for appointing ad-hoc committees for the events line-itemed in the campus events budget, and will act as Chair of each ad-hoc committee for its duration.

Clause Five: Become President upon the resignation, impeachment, recall or incapacity of the President. In addition, the Vice President will perform the duties of the President in the temporary absence or inability of the President.

SECTION FOUR

Duties of the Speaker of the Assembly

The Speaker of the Assembly will:

Clause One: Call, set the agenda, and chair all meetings of the Assembly.

Clause Two: Serve as the Assembly's advisory voice to the President and Vice President.

SECTION FIVE

Duties of the Speaker Pro Tempore of the Assembly

The Speaker Pro Tempore of the Assembly:

Clause One: Chair meetings of the Assembly in the absence of the Speaker.

Clause Two: Serve as Chair of the Student and Academic Affairs Committee.

SECTION SIX

Duties of the Government Relations Officer

The Government Relations Officer will:

- Clause One: Serve as Chair of the Legislative Affairs Committee.
- Clause Two: Serve on the UAA General Assembly as Representative of USUAA; prepare reports for each body on actions taken; coordinate USUAA business with members of the UAA General Assembly and Chancellor's Cabinet in cooperation with other USUAA executives.
- Clause Three: Serve on the Coalition of Student Leaders as Representative of USUAA; prepare reports for each body on actions taken; coordinate USUAA business with members of the Coalition of Student Leaders and UA Statewide Administration in cooperation with other USUAA executives.
- Clause Four: Be instrumental in USUAA's advocacy at all levels of governance, both internal and external to the University.
- Clause Five: Assist the Assembly in planning, coordinating, and marketing events that involve members of UAA, local, or statewide governments.

SECTION SEVEN

Duties of the Chief Financial Officer

- Clause One: Call and chair all meetings of the Finance Committee.
- Clause Two: Assist members of the Assembly with preparation of documents submitted for use of Assembly funds.
- Clause Three: Keep the Assembly up to date on the status of budget line items spent and funds remaining in conjunction with the Administrative Assistant and monthly management reports.
- Clause Four: Work with other executives and any students employed by USUAA to advertise USUAA business.
- Clause Five: Provide advisory comment on all budget or fee related USUAA business.

SECTION EIGHT

Duties of the Sergeant-At-Arms

- Clause One: Politely enforce the Speaker's directives relating to order at all Assembly meetings.
- Clause Two: Monitor the ethical behavior of Assembly members at meetings and draft written ethical complaints when necessary for the Rules Committee.
- Clause Three: Work to ensure that the Assembly meetings begin at scheduled times.
- Clause Four: Act as a doorkeeper if the Assembly is in danger of losing quorum or is in a closed session.

SESSION NINE

Duties of the Ombudsman

The Ombudsman will:

- Clause One: Be the protector and defender of students' rights, and act as students' confidante.
- Clause Two: Be visible and accessible to the student body, and serve as a source of information to students concerning the policies, rules and regulations of USUAA and the University of Alaska Anchorage
- Clause Three: Work with the Office of Student Affairs and the Dean of Students to fulfill all aforementioned duties.
- Clause Four: Be an advisory (non-voting) member of the Student and Academic Affairs Committee and work in conjunction with that body to fulfill its purpose, at his or her discretion.
- Clause Five: Present a monthly report to the President and the Assembly regarding the volume of student grievances and concerning any pertinent student issues that have come to light in the course of his or her work, without breaking the confidentiality of any students.

Clause Six: Serve from the first meeting of the fall semester through summer semester of that academic year in overlapping administrations to preserve the continuity of the office. The new President for the next academic year will strive to appoint an Ombudsman by the first week of the summer semester to provide time for overlap and training.

ARTICLE FIVE

Qualifications

Clause One: All USUAA office holders, petitioners, and candidates must be members of USUAA, have and maintain a minimum cumulative G.P.A. at UAA of 2.5 (on a scale of 4.0), complete at least three credit hours per semester, and be in good disciplinary standing with the University. Students wishing to fill an USUAA office who do not have an established G.P.A. at UAA, or whose G.P.A falls between 2.0 and 2.5 will have a probationary status for his or her first semester, after which he or she must meet the above requirements.

Clause Two: Failure to maintain these academic standards may result in an academic review by the Rules Committee and the Assistant Director of Student Leadership.

This review may result in either of the following:

1. Dismissal from the Assembly.
2. Academic Probation, defined as entrance into an academic performance agreement with the Assistant Director of Student Leadership within five (5) working days after the academic review.

Clause Three: Any Assembly member, whose cumulative G.P.A. falls below 2.0 will not be eligible for probation and will be immediately dismissed from the Assembly.

Clause Four: Assembly members can be granted only one (1) probationary period limited to one (1) semester.

ARTICLE SIX

- Clause Seven: No student serving in an elected capacity may be appointed to the Election Board.
- Clause Eight: University of Alaska full-time employees are strictly prohibited from running for any USUAA office.

SECTION THREE

Run-Offs

- Clause One: If there are six or more candidates for any one office excluding Senator, then there shall be a run-off election within two weeks among the top three candidates, unless one candidate wins at least 45% of the votes cast for that office.
- Clause Two: If, after any run-off election, the condition of a tie exists between two or more candidates, that tie will be decided by a majority vote of the Assembly.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN

Vacancies

- Clause One: Upon notification by the Rules Committee, the Assembly will determine if a vacancy exists for any elected position.
1. The position will be advertised until the close of business on the second Monday after the declared vacancy.
 2. Petition packets will be collected within this period and will be due at the close of business on the second Monday after the vacancy is declared, unless this day falls on a non-business day, in which case petition packets will be due the close of the next business day.

3. If the vacancy of an elected position is declared during the candidacy period for which that position could be elected, applicants may not petition, and must instead run in the election.

Clause Two: In the event of a declared vacancy in the office of the Vice-President, the President will select a new Vice-President, subject to concurrence by a majority vote in the Assembly.

Clause Three: Any member of USUAA who meets the constitutional criteria for elected office, and submits a valid petition, as defined in the Bylaws, will be considered a candidate for the vacancy.

Clause Four: From the qualified petitioners, the Assembly will elect, by simple majority, a candidate for the vacancy at the first Assembly meeting following certification of candidacy.

Clause Five: Persons filling vacancies will serve for the remainder of the term vacated.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN

Impeachment

SECTION ONE

Process

Clause One: Charges of impeachment may be brought against any elected or appointed USUAA official for malfeasance, nonfeasance and/or misfeasance.

Clause Two: Impeachment proceedings may be brought by any member of USUAA by means of petition outlining the specific grievances and signed by at least five percent (5%) of the membership of USUAA.

Clause Three: Impeachment proceedings may alternatively be brought by a petition outlining grievances signed by three-fourths (3/4) of the Assembly or by the Sergeant-At-Arms or Rules Committee Chair detailing a continued violation of the ethics set forth in this Constitution.

SECTION TWO

Proceedings

Clause One: A petition for impeachment must be presented to the Assembly by the Rules Committee. Validation or dismissal will take place by the next regularly scheduled Assembly meeting following receipt of the petition, and an executive session will be added to the agenda for the meeting to hear the reasons for impeachment brought in the petition.

- Clause Two: Upon validation, the Rules Committee will notify the official of suspension from service or duties related to the office until judgement is rendered.
- Clause Three: A public hearing with prior notice will begin no later than seven (7) days after validation of the verified petition by the Assembly.
- Clause Four: The Rules Committee will conduct all impeachment hearings during which it will receive testimony from all interested parties.
- Clause Five: Within seven (7) days of the conclusion of the hearings, the Rules Committee must submit to the Assembly, in writing, their findings, majority and minority opinions, and the recommendation of the committee. If the impeachment charges are sustained by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Assembly after the Rules Committee has reported its findings, said individual's office will be terminated immediately.

ARTICLE SEVENTEEN

ARTICLE NINETEEN

Ethics

Student representatives refers to any student in an elected or appointed position within USUAA and are a reflection of the student body they represent; they are leaders and role models for their peers. The following guidelines are provided so that should any student representative be found in violation, the assembly not only has the right, but also, the obligation to address the behavior of any member in question. Continued unethical behavior by a member will result in the removal of said student from his or her official capacity via the impeachment process as detailed within the Constitution and Bylaws.

1. Student representatives, when attending any USUAA meetings are expected to conduct business on the behalf of the student body, not for their own personal agenda.
2. While conducting assembly business the use of alcohol or any other illegal substances will not be tolerated. Student Representatives found to be under the influence of such at meetings will be immediately removed from the meeting and may be subject to further disciplinary action.
3. Student representatives will not accept nor solicit personal gifts or donations from any club, campus group, outside interests, or individuals, which could reasonably be inferred to influence that person in a way detrimental to the image or policies of USUAA. Any offers of gifts will be reported by the member to the Assembly.

4. Student representatives cannot hold employment, creates a conflict of interest to the goals and ideals of USUAA.
5. Student representatives will refrain from using language, which is derogatory to an individual's, or group's ethnic or racial background, nationality, religious beliefs, sex, sexual orientation, lifestyle or physical differences, or would otherwise discredit the Assembly.
6. Harassment by a student representative of any individual will not be tolerated. Student representatives found to be guilty of such accusations will be automatically removed from the Assembly. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - (a) Harassment as defined in any Alaska Statute.
 - (b) Harassment as defined in University of Alaska Anchorage Student Code of Conduct
 - (c) Sexual harassment as defined by University of Alaska Board of Regents Policy.
7. Abuse of power will not be tolerated and includes, but is not limited to: use of ones elected position to force or otherwise coerce another to do their bidding, to gain preferential treatment, to obtain discounted or free admission to events, etc.
8. The unauthorized use of USUAA materials, time, and facilities for anything other than USUAA business will not be tolerated.
9. Student representatives will adhere to all other Rights, Freedoms, and Responsibilities and Student Code of Conduct as outlined in the University of Alaska Anchorage Student Catalog, will comply with all applicable policies and regulations of the University of Alaska, and all federal and state laws.
